Reading I: Deuteronomy 8: 2-3, 14b-16a

Moses reminds the people of their 40-year sojourn in the desert, where they were not only tested but also provided for via the manna. This they should never forget.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 10: 16-17

By sharing the one cup and the one loaf, the diversity within the community blends into the unity brought about by being one body in Christ.

The Gospel: John 6: 51-58

Jesus asserts Himself as the "living bread that came down from heaven." Infinitely superior to the Old Testament manna, this bread and wine become for them and us, His Body and Blood.

Most Holy Body

and Blood of the Lord

Week of June 11 2023 The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Call on your imagination for this scene: a well-armed robber has invaded your home; ransacked it for valuables; demands all your money. Oddly enough, in these tense moments, he suddenly gives you an option. Speaking from behind his mask, he demands at gunpoint that you answer his question: "What do you value the most?"

Trembling, your mind presents pictures of all sorts of things flashing by your internal vision. Suddenly you recall your last time at Mass and you blurt out "Jesus in the Eucharist." The robber is stunned a bit; pauses a few minutes that seem like hours and suddenly flees out your back door.

Far-fetched case? Certainly. Unexpected answer? Maybe. But even if the Eucharist didn't spring to our minds right away in such a nerve-wracking situation, it would be at the top of our values in the calm ordinary time of our Catholic lives.

Someone recently gave me a beautiful reflection of St. Vincent de Paul on the Holy Eucharist in his "Exhortation to a Dying Brother," written in 1647. It fits today's great feast so beautifully.

"Since love is inventive to infinity, after being affixed to the infamous stake of the cross to win the hearts and souls of those by whom He wishes to be loved... foreseeing that His absence could cause some forgetfulness or cooling off in our hearts, He wanted to avoid this danger by instituting the Most August Sacrament, in which He is as truly and substantially present as He is in heaven above.

Furthermore, however, seeing that, if He wanted to humble and empty Himself even more than He had done in His Incarnation and could make Himself in some way more like us—or at least make us more like Him—He caused this venerable Sacrament to serve us as food and drink, intending by this means that the same union and resemblance that exist between nature and substance should occur spiritually in each person.

...From this you see how, by every means imaginable, He has striven to win us over to love Him, and, with this in view, you must stir up your heart to pay this just and pleasant tribute to love of a God who has been the object of all His plans for you and for which to obtain it He did all that He has done for you. You must believe that the greatest present you could offer Him is your heart; He asks nothing else of you."

God love you and give you His peace.

Novena to The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

During the month of June we are offering (9 Masses) a Novena in Honor of The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Novena envelopes will be placed on the Altar for the entire month of June.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Friday, June 16th is the Feast Day of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, though not a Holyday of obligation, we celebrate the Patron of our Church.

Mass Schedule
