Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.

To you do we send up our sighs,
Mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn then, most gracious advocate,
Your eyes of mercy toward us,
And after this exile show unto us
The blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.

Adoration

Adoration of the Eucharist will be held on Fridays from 11 AM to 12 PM in our Church. This is a wonderful opportunity to spend time with our Lord.

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reading I: Acts 8: 5-8

Phillip preached and performed miracles that ultimately brought the Samaritans to belief in Christ. Later, Peter and John visited and conferred the Holy Spirit upon those new converts.

Reading II: I Peter 3: 15-18

This passage urges us to always be ready to explain our faith, but to do so in a kind way and matched with our good conduct. If maligned in some way, we must "turn the other cheek" and offer up our suffering to God as did Jesus.

The Gospel: John 14: 15-21

Jesus tries to prepare His disciples for His approaching departure. He also promises to send them an Advocate. He spells out for them the best way to show their ongoing love for Him with an "action plan."

Week of May 14, 2023 - The Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

"Sounds like a plan." We say it when we have mutual agreement on some future action. Implied is our trust in the "other" to honor the idea with more than words. So two reputations are at stake, yours and theirs. Trust is on the line. Of course, that trust is in jeopardy if one or the other party reneges. There comes trouble.

Through our Baptism, you and I lay claim to love Jesus Christ as Our Lord and God, specifically in this Easter season as our risen Lord and Redeemer. Today we hear Him tell His closest devotees that He will soon be leaving them. But He will not leave them to their own resources. He will send them an Advocate, whom we know as the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Holy Trinity. He will provide an action plan.

To preclude any breaking of the bond that they have forged between them over the past three years, Jesus tells His Apostles and disciples of His love for them. So a question arises: How will this love be manifest? How will they retain what He gives them? The answer is a plan: by their observance of His commandments. Implied here is not only the ancient Ten, but also the more recently proclaimed Eight Beatitudes. In other words, a "Christian Plan of Action."

Easy enough to understand. Tough as nails to keep. And oh how we know that to be true! Especially when we leave Sunday Mass, only to tackle a whole new week of daily life out there in the so-called "real world," beginning with the parking lot.

But listen again, everybody, to the encouragement we receive from the God Man who became like us in all things but sin: "Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves Me. And whoever loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Of course, keeping our promise takes perseverance. Who best to remind us of that than Mary our heavenly Mother, and the woman we all honor on this Mother's Day? .

They might even tell us this story about perseverance and a certain frog:
*Two frogs fell into a can of cream, or so I've heard it told.
The sides of the can were shiny and steep. The cream was deep and cold.
"Oh, what's the use?" croaked number one. "Tis fate, no help's around.
Good-bye, my friend! Good-bye sad world!" And weeping still, he drowned.
But frog number two, of sterner stuff, dog-paddled in surprise,
The while he wiped his creamy face and dried his creamy eyes.
"I'll swim a while, at least," he said. Or so I've heard he said.
"It really wouldn't help the world if one more frog were dead."
An hour or two he kicked and swam. Not once he stopped to mutter,
But kicked and kicked and swam and kicked. Then hopped out by way of butter!*

God love you and give you His Easter peace.

Congratulations to our students of Sacred Heart Parish that received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday, May 11, 2023.

Congratulations to our students of Sacred Heart Parish that received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 13, 2023.

Mother's Day envelopes can be found in the back of our Church. Please deposit the envelopes in our collection basket or you may bring it to the rectory. The envelopes will be placed on the altar during the entire month of May. All mothers, (living or deceased), mothers-to-be, yourself if you are a mother, or a woman who has shown you motherly love in your life, will be honored and prayed for during the month of May.

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you for ever - the Spirit of truth.
John 14:16-17a
