Week of October 1, 2023 The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

by Leonard N. Peterson

While there is no such thing as a caste system in the “land of the free and the home of the brave,” it is so fundamental a belief that it is enshrined in our founding declaration. There it states: “all men are created equal.” Dare I say, “except when boarding a plane, train or cruise ship?”

Just think of your latest long-distance flight. The boarding agent announces: “Now boarding first class passengers.” Soon a relatively small group will get up from their scattered places in the waiting area and calmly board. Meanwhile, the rest of us will wait to be called up in sections of numbered rows. As we head there, we walk by the first-class privileged ones scanning their reading material or their phone screens, sometimes looking up from their extra wide comfort seats to stare at us “peons” walking back to our row of 3 narrower models.

But when it comes to the matter of entering the kingdom of God, all is reversed. The poor go first. The only qualification for a good seat is belief in the way of righteousness. John the Baptist, the man so admired by His Divine Cousin, had evidently preached a bright new message of salvation. But the “chief priests and elders of the people” did not believe John’s word. Who did? The tax collectors and prostitutes. The sinners; the lower class; the great unwashed. Those whose humility was real and deep. It also led them to believe and even rejoice in Jesus.

We know all about the righteousness of Our Lord Jesus. He was and is the very fulfillment of the Baptist’s preaching. The one with the only actual key to paradise. Earthly power, wealth and fame have no interest in Jesus. They certainly do not offer any attraction for the person who says in prayer: “Have mercy on me, O God, for I have sinned.”

The next time you get jealous of the people seated in first class, consider this story called “The Death of a Hapsburg.” In Vienna, Austria, you will find a church in which the Hapsburgs, the former ruling family of Austria, are buried. It is recorded that when royal funerals finally arrive at the church for the burial rites, the mourners leading the procession knock at the door to gain entrance.

“Who is it that desires admission here?” a priest asks through the locked door. “His apostolic majesty, the emperor!” calls the guard. “I don’t know him,” answers the priest.

A second knock follows, and a similar question is asked. This time the funeral guard announces the deceased as “the highest emperor.” Again, “I don’t know him” echoes throughout the vaulted burial chamber.

Finally, a third knock is heard. “Who is it?” “A poor sinner, your brother,” comes the final answer. Then the door is opened, and the royal burial is completed.

God love you and help you accept His ways.

In 2002 a group of five men saw a void in enabling men to come together to share the Gospel with each other outside of Sunday Mass. To that end, they started a Gospel Reflection Group in Chester, PA that has grown into over 50 parishes and locations and now brings over 600 men together each week! These men share the Gospel, but also how to become better fathers, husbands, sons, and good Catholic men.

Join fellow Catholic men on October 7th at Iona University to learn and worship. Speakers include author Dr. Scott Hahn and former NFL player Kevin Reilly. Doors open at 8am. Closes with Anticipated Mass and Evening of Adoration with Bishop Espaillet. Anticipated end time 6:30pm Please visit www.manupny.com for more information and registration.

October Rosary Devotions

“Love the Madonna and pray the rosary, for her rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother.” - Padre Pio

October’s devotion is to the Holy Rosary, with the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7th. In honor of Our Lady, we will hold several rosary devotions through the month of October.

October 2, Monday—5:30pm
October 14, Saturday—12pm
October 31, Tuesday—5:30pm

Let us come and honor our Blessed Mother together.

Week of October 1, 2023 The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux October 1

Thérèse was born in 1873 in Alençon, France to Louis and Zélie Martin, both of whom are also canonized saints. As the youngest of nine children, she was doted upon. She is described as having been a precocious and determined child. She also possessed a sharp mind, so much so that she was advanced several grades in school.

The Martin family was very devout. Four of Thérèse's sisters became nuns. At age 15 she also desired to join the Carmelite order. However, the priest denied her entry due to her age. Next, she petitioned the bishop who, while touched by her faith, only said he would consider it. Finally, on Pope Leo XIII's Golden Jubilee visit to Rome, Thérèse defied the rule that pilgrims could not speak to the Holy Father. She knelt before him and begged for his permission, to which he said, "Go—you will enter if God wills it."

Thérèse desired to become a missionary, however poor health confined her to the convent. She wrote of feeling small and imperfect. However, she would not let this limitation stop her from saving souls and reaching heaven. She developed her "little way" and bore small daily difficulties with humility and peace. Her way of living has been captured in her autobiography, "Story of a Soul" and has inspired millions to do small acts with great love.

Thérèse was canonized in 1925. On October 19, 1997, Pope John Paul II proclaimed her a Doctor of the Church, the third woman to be so recognized in light of her holiness and the influence of her teaching on spirituality in the Church.

The Sanctuary Lamp is dedicated during the month of October for the Intentions of the Alencherril Family
