We extend our deepest condolences to everyone who has lost a loved one.

May God grant you peace and comfort!

by Leonard N. Peterson

The long-lived and well-known trademark of the RCA company featured a small dog, later named “Nipper,” with his head turned toward the opening of an old-fashioned gramophone speaker over the caption: “His Master’s voice.” It made the point for the company’s voice and musical reproduction.

We in this age of high-tech sound equipment still hear the voice of Christ our Master filtered through the Scripture Readings at Mass and the bible in general as presented to us by our Church. So, it is today, as we hear that unique parable of the vineyard, in which Christ tells His audience of “the chief priests and elders of the people” the story of salvation.

We note that the landowner “leased the property” to the “tenants,” who represent the people of Israel. When vintage time came near (that of the final judgment) the owner sent his servants (the Israelites) to obtain his produce.

The tenants mistreat and kill all the servants (prophets) until the owner (God the Father) decides to send his Son (Jesus). Him they seized and killed after throwing him out of the vineyard to a hill just outside the walls of Jerusalem (Calvary).

When Jesus asked His listeners “What would the owner do to those tenants?” they unwittingly pronounced their own doom as deserving of a wretched death. With that would come the leasing of the vineyard “to other tenants” (the Gentiles).

Think of this story as a “mirror parable,” It had to have had a devastating impact on its original listeners when Jesus flatly told them “The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit.” I can imagine the human side of Jesus feeling pain that He had to say such to His own people. But He had to speak truth to power.

Our noisy world makes it difficult sometimes to hear our Master’s voice above the din of our anti-Christian culture. What would it be like if some kind of solar ray suddenly caused all radios, i phones and i pods, stereos and televisions to stop working? Trembling hands would immediately twirl dials, adjust knobs, and flip switches. Eyes would be dilated with fear of the silence. People would be in terror.

In this context, I have to say that Karl Marx was wrong when he declared that “religion is the opiate of the people.” For us, I think our collective “drug” is noise. Most people will listen to anything to avoid silence. Why else do we have so many overly long talk shows? Or 24/7 news? Or call-in radio programs? Why? Because sound blocks any despairing cry of our own souls. It overpowers “the still, small voice of God.” Talk about our “Master’s voice.”! Why not take some extra time this coming week to tune in? You’ll find out that:

God truly loves you and gives you, His peace.
