The Solemnity of Mary January 1st

The Solemnity of Mary,
Mother of God is a
Holy Day of Obligation

Tues, Dec 31—5pm
Wed, Jan 1—7am
Wed, Jan 1—12:10pm

We start the new year off with The Solemnity of Mary and World Peace Day. In the encyclical Marialis Cultus (1974) Pope Paul VI states: "This celebration, assigned to January 1 in conformity with the ancient liturgy of the city of Rome, is meant to commemorate the part played by Mary in this mystery of salvation. It is meant also to exalt the singular dignity which this mystery brings to the 'holy Mother . . . through whom we were found worthy . . . to receive the Author of life.' It is likewise a fitting occasion for renewed adoration of the newborn Prince of Peace, for listening once more to the glad tidings of the angels, and for imploring from God, through the Queen of Peace, the supreme gift of peace. For this reason . . . we have instituted the World Day of Peace, an observance that is gaining increasing support and is already bringing forth fruits of peace in the hearts of many."

Let us gather together to celebrate Our Holy Mother and to pray that God's peace may reign in our world!

Nocturnal Adoration

We will hold Nocturnal Adoration for the men's group next week, January 4th. Exposition will begin on Saturday at 8:15pm after the Spanish Mass, and Benediction will begin on Sunday at 5am. The first and last hours will be open to the public. For security purposes, the doors will be locked between 10pm—4am.

New "Pray for the Sick" List

We will be starting a new "Pray for the Sick" list on January 5th. If you would like the name of a loved one to be placed on it, please contact the rectory or leave a note in the collection basket.

the CARDINAL'S
ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL
Sharing God's Gifts

This is the last week to contribute to the 2024 Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal. Thank you for your contributions! We have raised 75% of our $72,400 goal! 143 parishioners have generously pledged $53,945. We need $18,455 more to reach our goal before the end of the year. If you have not yet, please prayerfully consider contributing. These funds help to carry on Jesus ministry across the Archdiocese of New York.

Week of December 29, 2024 The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Dear friends in the Lord:

January is the time of year within our archdiocese when we ask our people for their support of both The Catholic University of America and the Catholic Communications Campaign.

The Catholic University, in the heart of our nation's capital, is a truly unique institution of higher learning, founded by the United States bishops back in 1887, and chartered by the Holy See. In every way, the university belongs to each of us no matter where we live. And so, it is incumbent upon us to help with the education of future leaders of our Church and nation. Just within the past year, several thousand students, including those from our archdiocese, who otherwise would not have been able to attend CUA, were given an opportunity to do so, thanks in large part to your generosity. I, myself, am a grateful alumnus.

Also, through the Catholic Communications Campaign, the conference of bishops can serve all the diocese of our nation by providing educational and spiritual programs for radio and television. You should know that one half of your giving remains here in the archdiocese to assist with the ongoing and planned efforts of our communications and technology office such as with broadcasting, social media, public relations, marketing and The Good Newsroom.

This combined collection will be taken in our parishes next Saturday, January 5, the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. To learn more, visit these two web sites <https://engage.catholic.edu/giving/how-give/national-collection> and <https://www.usccb.org/committees/catholic-communication-campaign>.

My gratitude to you for your contribution to these two important collections, and for your past generosity of $343,847 last year; and my prayerful best wishes for a holy, healthy, and happy new year.

Fraternally in Christ,

†Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Meet Luce!

The Vatican has unveiled a cartoon mascot for the 2025 Jubilee Year. Luce (pronounced Loo-chey), which means “light” in Italian, was deigned by Simone Legno, the Italian co-founder of the pop culture brand tokidoki.

Her cheerful countenance is filled with thoughtful symbolism. Her muddy boot and walking stick are indicators of her pilgrim status. The rosary around her neck mirrors the colors of the Jubilee logo. The light in her eyes are shaped like shells, a symbol most commonly associated with the popular pilgrimage of El Camino de Santiago, but more deeply symbolizes perseverance in faith. Finally, her yellow raincoat is meant to symbolize journeying through life's storms. Our faith shields us and keeps us warm and secure when the world around us darkens.

Just like all of us as members of the Church, Luce does not travel alone. She and her diverse group of friends and her trusty dog Santino were debuted at Lucca Comics and Games in Italy. It was the first time that a Vatican dicastery participated in a comics convention.

Archbishop Rino Fisichella, the Vatican's chief organizer for the jubilee, described the mascot as part of the Vatican's goal to engage with “the pop culture so beloved by our young people.” He expressed hope that Luce would, “allow us to speak to the younger generations about the theme of hope, which is more central than ever in the evangelical message.”

Luce's reveal has sparked a hot debate online. Some see it as a misguided marketing campaign. However, she has drawn the attention of many non-Catholics who are now expressing interest in the faith. Jesus called us to be lights to the world, and no matter where you stand on the debate, Luce undeniable has shone Christ's light into the darkness with her innocent smile. May she be a reminder to all believers that the Lord called us to “turn and become like little children” (Matthew 18:3) to enter the kingdom of Heaven.

A Family Prayer for the New Year

All make the sign of the cross. The leader begins:

Let us praise the Lord of days and seasons and years, saying:
Glory to God in the highest!

R/. And peace to his people on earth!

Our lives are made of days and nights, of seasons and years,
for we are part of a universe of suns and moons and planets.
We mark ends and we make beginnings and, in all, we praise God for the grace and mercy that fill our days.

Then the Scripture is read, either Genesis 1:14-19 or Psalm 90:1-4

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

After a time of silence, members of the household offer prayers of thanksgiving for the past year, and of intercession for the year to come. On January 1, it may be appropriate to conclude these prayers with the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary since this is the solemn feast of Mary, Mother of God.

All join hands for the Lord's Prayer.

Let us now pray for God's blessing in the new year.

After a short silence, parents may place their hands on their children in blessing as the leader says:

Remember us, O God;
from age to age be our comforter.
You have given us the wonder of time,
blessings in days and nights, seasons and years.
Bless your children at the turning of the year and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.
You are our God, living and reigning, forever and ever.
R/. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

All respond, making the sign of the cross:
Thanks be to God.

The prayer may conclude with the singing of a Christmas carol.
