by Leonard N. Peterson

Like flies at a garden party, sickness and death are never welcome. But nevertheless, they hover over our lives on earth and often descend just when it is most inconvenient. When they hurt the most, interrupting our plans and exposing our vulnerability. Gospel stories like these tell us that Jesus knew all about such, but that He had that wondrous divine ability to take away their sting.

Case in point are the two stories told us by Mark today that exemplify his trademark “sandwich” device to make his point. Interesting enough, the two stories have several points in common: female sufferers, the number 12, and vocabulary (“faith,” “fear,” “sane,” “daughter,” etc.) Yet the style used points to a separate origin.

The story of Jairus’ daughter is told in short sentences in the so-called historical present tense. The story of the woman with the flow of blood is told in longer sentences and in the imperfect tense.

What is more important for us is to note the faith of both Jairus and the sick woman and the reaction to both of Jesus. First Jairus. He was a Jewish official, privy to all the gossip about Jesus and the opinions of fellow Jews of rank. Yet here he is, put in the position of a beggar for Jesus’ help for his sick little daughter. He was a desperate father, a figure we can identify with. He was willing to reach out to anyone who could help him.

Then we have the woman, likely alone in the world with no husband to help her, and not able to get sufficient help from any doctors for 12 years. So, she too reaches out to the one person she knew could help her.

In the case of Jesus, He appreciates the faith behind the pleas of both persons and responds. Jesus is the calm in the midst of chaos and is in full control of both situations and of the divine power that He bears. How essential it is to have someone calm and in control at times like these if we are to get a handle on things. What does Jesus say to Jairus? Something that we all should remember: “Do not be afraid; just have faith.”

Jesus’ words bring me right back to the homily Pope St. John Paul II gave at his inaugural Mass when he too proclaimed: “Do not be afraid!” The circumstances were different from these two scenes 2,000 years ago. But the world situation in 1978 was much like it is in 2024, one of confusion and sickness of spirit. So, we need to hear Jesus say it loud and clear once again: “Do not be afraid; just have faith!”

What’s your “faith quotient”? What’s mine? A question we need to ask and answer. Not just when we are sick or facing death, but right here and right now.

Here are two thoughts about faith that I found:

1. “The greatest act of faith takes place when a person finally decides that he or she is not God.”
2. “Not as many people have lost faith in America as you might think. An awful lot of them sign up for a 30-year mortgage.”

God love you and keep the Faith!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Seven in ten Catholics believe the Eucharist is merely a symbol, an encounter with an “it” instead of a “who.” This reality should break our hearts, not because of what it means for Mass attendance or stewardship but because so many Catholics are missing the opportunity to know Jesus Christ. During this Year of Parish Revival, all the faithful are invited to “Come and See” in hopes that we truly Encounter the presence of Jesus alive in the Eucharist.

Our parish offers several opportunities for us to Encounter Jesus. We hold a weekly Holy Hour every Friday from 11am-12pm. Twice a month, our Nocturnal Adoration group meets to spend time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament from 8pm on Saturday to 5am on Sunday. You do not need to stay the whole night. Even devoting an hour to Jesus is enough to help draw us closer to Him.

Part of our coldness towards Jesus in the Eucharist may be due in part to a lack of understanding of what happens during the Mass. If our eyes were opened to the mysteries that occurred around us every week, perhaps we would feel differently about spending an hour in God’s presence. The Veil Removed is a powerful short film (only 7 minutes long) that reveals the coming together of Heaven and earth at Mass. Blessed Carlo Acutis "The First Millennial Saint"

On May 23, 2024, Pope Francis formally recognized a miracle attributed to the intercession of Blessed Carlo Acutis, paving the way to his canonization.

Carlo was born in 1991. He grew up in Milan, Italy. He was a typical teenager who loved soccer, video games, and making videos with his dogs and cats. Although his parents weren't particularly devoted, he embraced the Catholic faith. "To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan," he wrote when he was 7 years old. Carlo went to Mass every single day, volunteered at the church-run soup kitchen, and helped other students who struggled with their homework. He also created a website documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world, which can still be visited at <http://www.miracolieucaaristici.org/>. His loving example led to a renewal of faith in his mother.

When he was only 15, he was diagnosed with an aggressive form of leukemia. He offered his sufferings for the Pope and the Church. On October 12, 2006, he passed away. Because of his devotion to St. Francis, he was buried in Assisi.

Blessed Carlo reminds us that the saints are not a relic of the past. We are still called to holiness and sainthood in the 21st century. He shows us that technology can be used to bring glory to God instead of distracting us from Him. His life also shows us how we can be examples for others, that by our loving actions we can be shining beacons of faith to lead others to God. May Blessed Carlo's life inspire us, especially our younger generations, to lives of holiness.
