Rosary & Divine Mercy Chaplet

All are welcome to join our Legion of Mary members Monday-Friday in daily prayer. Daily Rosary takes place after the 12:10pm mass. The Divine Mercy Chaplet takes place at 3pm in the Church.

2025 Mass Intentions

The mass book for 2025 is now open. At this time we cannot take intentions over the phone. Please stop by the rectory Monday—Friday 9 am—4 pm, place your intentions in the collection basket, or email shchartsdale@gmail.com. Masses are $15 each. Intentions for the altar bread, altar wine, and sanctuary lamp are $100 per month. You can pay by cash or check made out to Church of the Sacred Heart. We will reserve masses on a first come first serve basis.

Please note that we will not be taking intentions for the Easter Triduum (April 17-20) and Christmas (December 24-25) masses. These masses will be said for all the parishioners of Sacred Heart.

We understand that there are dates significant to each of us, but please don't be discouraged if you do not get a mass for that exact date. Our God created the entire universe and time itself. He is not limited by it. Padre Pio said, "For Our Lord the past does not exist; the future does not exist. Everything is an eternal present." God is omniscient and merciful. He knows your heart and will answer your prayers—past, present and future.

Registration for the Religious Education Program has begun for the children of our registered parish families.

From September 2024 to May 2025, weekly classes on the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church are offered for the children of the parish who are students in public school grades 1—8. The classes are meant to assist the parents of these children to fulfill their responsibility to educate their children in the faith, a responsibility to which they committed themselves when they had their children baptized.

Classes start at 8:30 am on Sunday mornings. At dismissal time parents are asked to accompany their children to Church so they can attend the 10:00 am Mass.

Please call 914-946-7242 ext. 1, Mon-Thurs 8am-12pm or email sacredheartprogram@gmail.com to register.

Sacred Heart School still has seats available for September. The school serves Pre-K 3 year olds to 8th graders. If you'd like a tour and to speak to someone about the school, please email the principal, Dr. Fruner, at jfruner@shchartsdale.org. July and August hours are from 8:00am-12pm, Monday through Thursday. The school is closed on Fridays in July and August.

Let us pray for our deceased parishioners, benefactors, relatives, for those who are most forgotten and for those who recently died, especially:

Gary Cardany and Katherine Bianchini

We extend our deepest condolences to everyone who has lost a loved one.

May God grant you peace and comfort!

If you would like the name of a loved one to be placed on the Pray For the Sick list, please contact the rectory or leave a note in the collection basket.

The altar bread & altar wine are available to offer in honor of a loved one for several months of 2024. If you wish to reserve one of them, please call or email the rectory.

Week of August 25, 2024 The Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection

Can you think of a time when someone did something kind or helpful for you? Maybe they paid for a meal when you were short-changed or made you chicken noodle soup when you were sick. Perhaps it was offering prayers for you or a loved one in a difficult season of life. The smallest, simplest gestures can have profound effects.

As followers of Christ, we are called to serve those in need. But it isn't always easy to serve others, especially when the people that we serve don't seem to appreciate our help or reciprocate with any kindness themselves. Of course, we aren't called to serve others when it is easy or even when it makes us feel good about ourselves.

Christ gave of himself even though we didn't earn it or deserve it. When that truth dwells in our hearts, "love can also blossom as a response within us" (Deus caritas est, no. 17). When you have experienced the grace of God, you want to show the grace of God. When you have received mercy, you desire to extend mercy.

We can look to Christ as our perfect example. He nurtured people spiritually and healed them physically. He didn't just do it for those that he knew would reciprocate the gesture. He didn't reserve his grace for only those who would follow him as a disciple. His mercy didn't discriminate. As St. Paul reminds us, "for Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly" (Romans 5:6).

There are countless ways in which we can help others. However, the Church has given us seven ways in which we can assist others' physical needs and seven more ways to address spiritual needs.

"The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, and comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead" (CCC 2447).

The Eucharist is a sacrament of charity. In fact, the Church teaches us that reception of the Blessed Sacrament commits us to the poor (CCC 1397). As our devotion to the Blessed Sacrament increases, so will our desire to serve others. Whether you are called to help others spiritually or corporally, in big ways or small ways, believe that God will bless others through you. Jesus continues to give us his very best; we are called to follow suit. Today, let us be mindful of those around us and the opportunity we have to meet them in their needs.

Prayer

Lord, thank you for the gift of today. As you have loved us, let us now do the same for others. We pray that we may be given the opportunity to be your hands and feet in this world. When it is difficult, grant us the grace to pour ourselves out for others, just as you have done for us. May your Holy Spirit give us the strength needed to serve those in our path. Amen.

Challenge

Choose one Corporal Work of Mercy and one Spiritual Work of Mercy that you can perform today. You can reference paragraphs 2447 and 2448 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church for more information on the Works of Mercy. You can read the Catechism of the Catholic Church as well as the Bible for free when you download the Ascension Bible & Catechism app.

The missioners from Sacred Heart Church who attended the Capuchin Appalachian Mission this past July would like to thank the parishioners for their generosity of financial and spiritual support.

Week of August 25, 2024 The Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

We congratulate the Legionnaires who made their promise and those who renewed it at mass on Assumption Thursday. We are grateful for their prayers and apostolic works in our community.

The object of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work. Members participate in the life of the parish through visitation of families, the sick, both in their homes and in hospitals and through collaboration in every apostolic and missionary undertaking sponsored by the parish.

If you are interested in joining the Legion of Mary, you are welcome to come for a meeting on any Wednesday at 10:45am in the rectory meeting room.
